

LIVING BEYOND
BREAST CANCER®

Register for free
at lbbc.org

Know your options: Understanding your risk-reducing breast surgical options

When you have an increased risk for developing breast cancer, navigating surgical options that can reduce your risk can be overwhelming.

Join Living Beyond Breast Cancer, Penn Medicine, and the Basser Center for BRCA for a free webinar to learn about:

- assessing and understanding your breast cancer risk
- the role of genetic counseling
- risk-reducing surgery and reconstruction options
- post-surgical care and surveillance

Moderator

Ali Rogin

Correspondent/
Producer, PBS
NewsHour and
PBS News Weekend

Speaker

Angela Ross, MS, LCGC

Genetic Counselor

Speaker

Oluwadamilola "Lola"
Fayanju, MD, MA,
MPHS, FACS

Chief, Breast Surgery
Penn Medicine

Speaker

Suhail K. Kanchwala, MD

Director of Reconstructive
Microsurgery, Penn
Medicine Plastic Surgery

Wednesday, July 17
7:00–8:00 p.m. (ET)
Virtual, free event

SPONSORS

Penn Medicine
Abramson Cancer Center

BASSER
CENTER
FOR BRCA

 Penn Medicine

RESTORE
— PENN MEDICINE CENTER FOR — ADVANCED BREAST RECONSTRUCTION

PROMOTIONAL PARTNERS

 BRCA STRONG | UnBRCAble

FORCE
Facing Hereditary Cancer EMPOWERED

 SHARSHERET